

Covilhã | PORTUGAL

The University of Beira Interior, located in Covilhã, is today a reference institution at national and international level, in the fields of teaching, research, innovation and entrepreneurship.

UBI has invested in the creation of well-equipped laboratories, in the expansion of its facilities - both those dedicated to teaching and research activities and those needed to offer its students the best working conditions and social support - in the progressive involvement in national and international research projects and a highly qualified teaching staff.

The evolution of the number of courses has been increasing over the years. The number of students has also increased and includes students from Portugal and from all over the world.

UBI currently has 36 Bachelor's degrees and Integrated Masters, about 40 Master's degrees and about 30 Doctorates, distributed by five faculties: Faculty of Sciences, Faculty of Engineering, Faculty of Human and Social Sciences, Faculty of Arts and Letters and Faculty of Health Sciences.
